9. KAUA'I OCEANFRONT HOME

This wonderful beach house on the sandy, sunny shores of Kauai could be yours for a week! "Healoha Hale" means "Beloved Home," and this is exactly how this home has been treated, decorated, & maintained. Up to six people will spend seven nights in this planter's style ocean-front property with 20 foot ceilings, huge great room floor plan and three comfortable bedrooms, each with their own bathroom. It has a fully equipped kitchen, two outdoor showers, most amenities you can think of & the turquoise Pacific Ocean just 80 feet from the front lanai. A tall hedge separates the yard from the beach, providing the best privacy for you and your guests. Less than 10 minutes away is Kapa'a Town, where you can find everything for your vacation needs. The home is set in a rural, private landscaped yard giving you plenty of space to spread out and enjoy all that Kauai has to offer. You may find yourself alone on our beautiful beach where the off-shore reef allows swimming, snorkeling, & other beach activities even when the beaches appear "too stormy." This home is well-appointed for your visit and is a very popular vacation rental property when the owners are not there. The back lanai is perfect for barbecuing in the evening and watching the Anahola Mountains change colors as the sun sets. The property is east-facing, so that you may experience the sun rise out of the ocean every morning as you begin another beautiful day in Kauai. Once announced that you are the winner of this prize package, you have 60 days to sign up for a week of your choosing between now and December 16, 2016 (excludes holiday peak season). This destination property is extremely popular and slots fill fast; we do not want you to miss your chance of experiencing such a magnificent place.
